Building the Future of Mining: Our Story

Founded over a century ago, we began as contractors for the Royal Family, contributing to the construction of their palaces and Porbandar's infrastructure. Today, we specialize in bauxite mining, processing, and export, serving global markets. We're committed to innovation, recently expanding into high-grade bauxite imports and developing advanced mineral products.

Learn More

The Breadth of Our Work

We don't just mine minerals, we unearth potential. From the depths of the earth to the heights of urban skylines, we're shaping a future where technology and nature intertwine. We build smart spaces, fuel innovation, and secure financial futures, because we're not just in the business of extraction, development, and investment – we're in the business of progress.

Elevating Business Through Key Associations

Hemalaya thrives on strong alliances, working closely with industry leaders to enhance operational efficiency and sustainable growth. These partnerships are integral to our commitment to innovation, helping us set new standards in the mining industry.

HR

On the keyboard of life,
we 'shift' our perspective to 'enter' into creativity.

WE'RE A CREATIVE TRANSFORMATION COMPANY.

There are branding agencies
and then there are brand-building agencies.

COMPANY

Granth is the creative canvas where ideas take shape and imaginations soar high. A group of artisans weave stories and bring them to life with an artistic touch.

CLIENTS

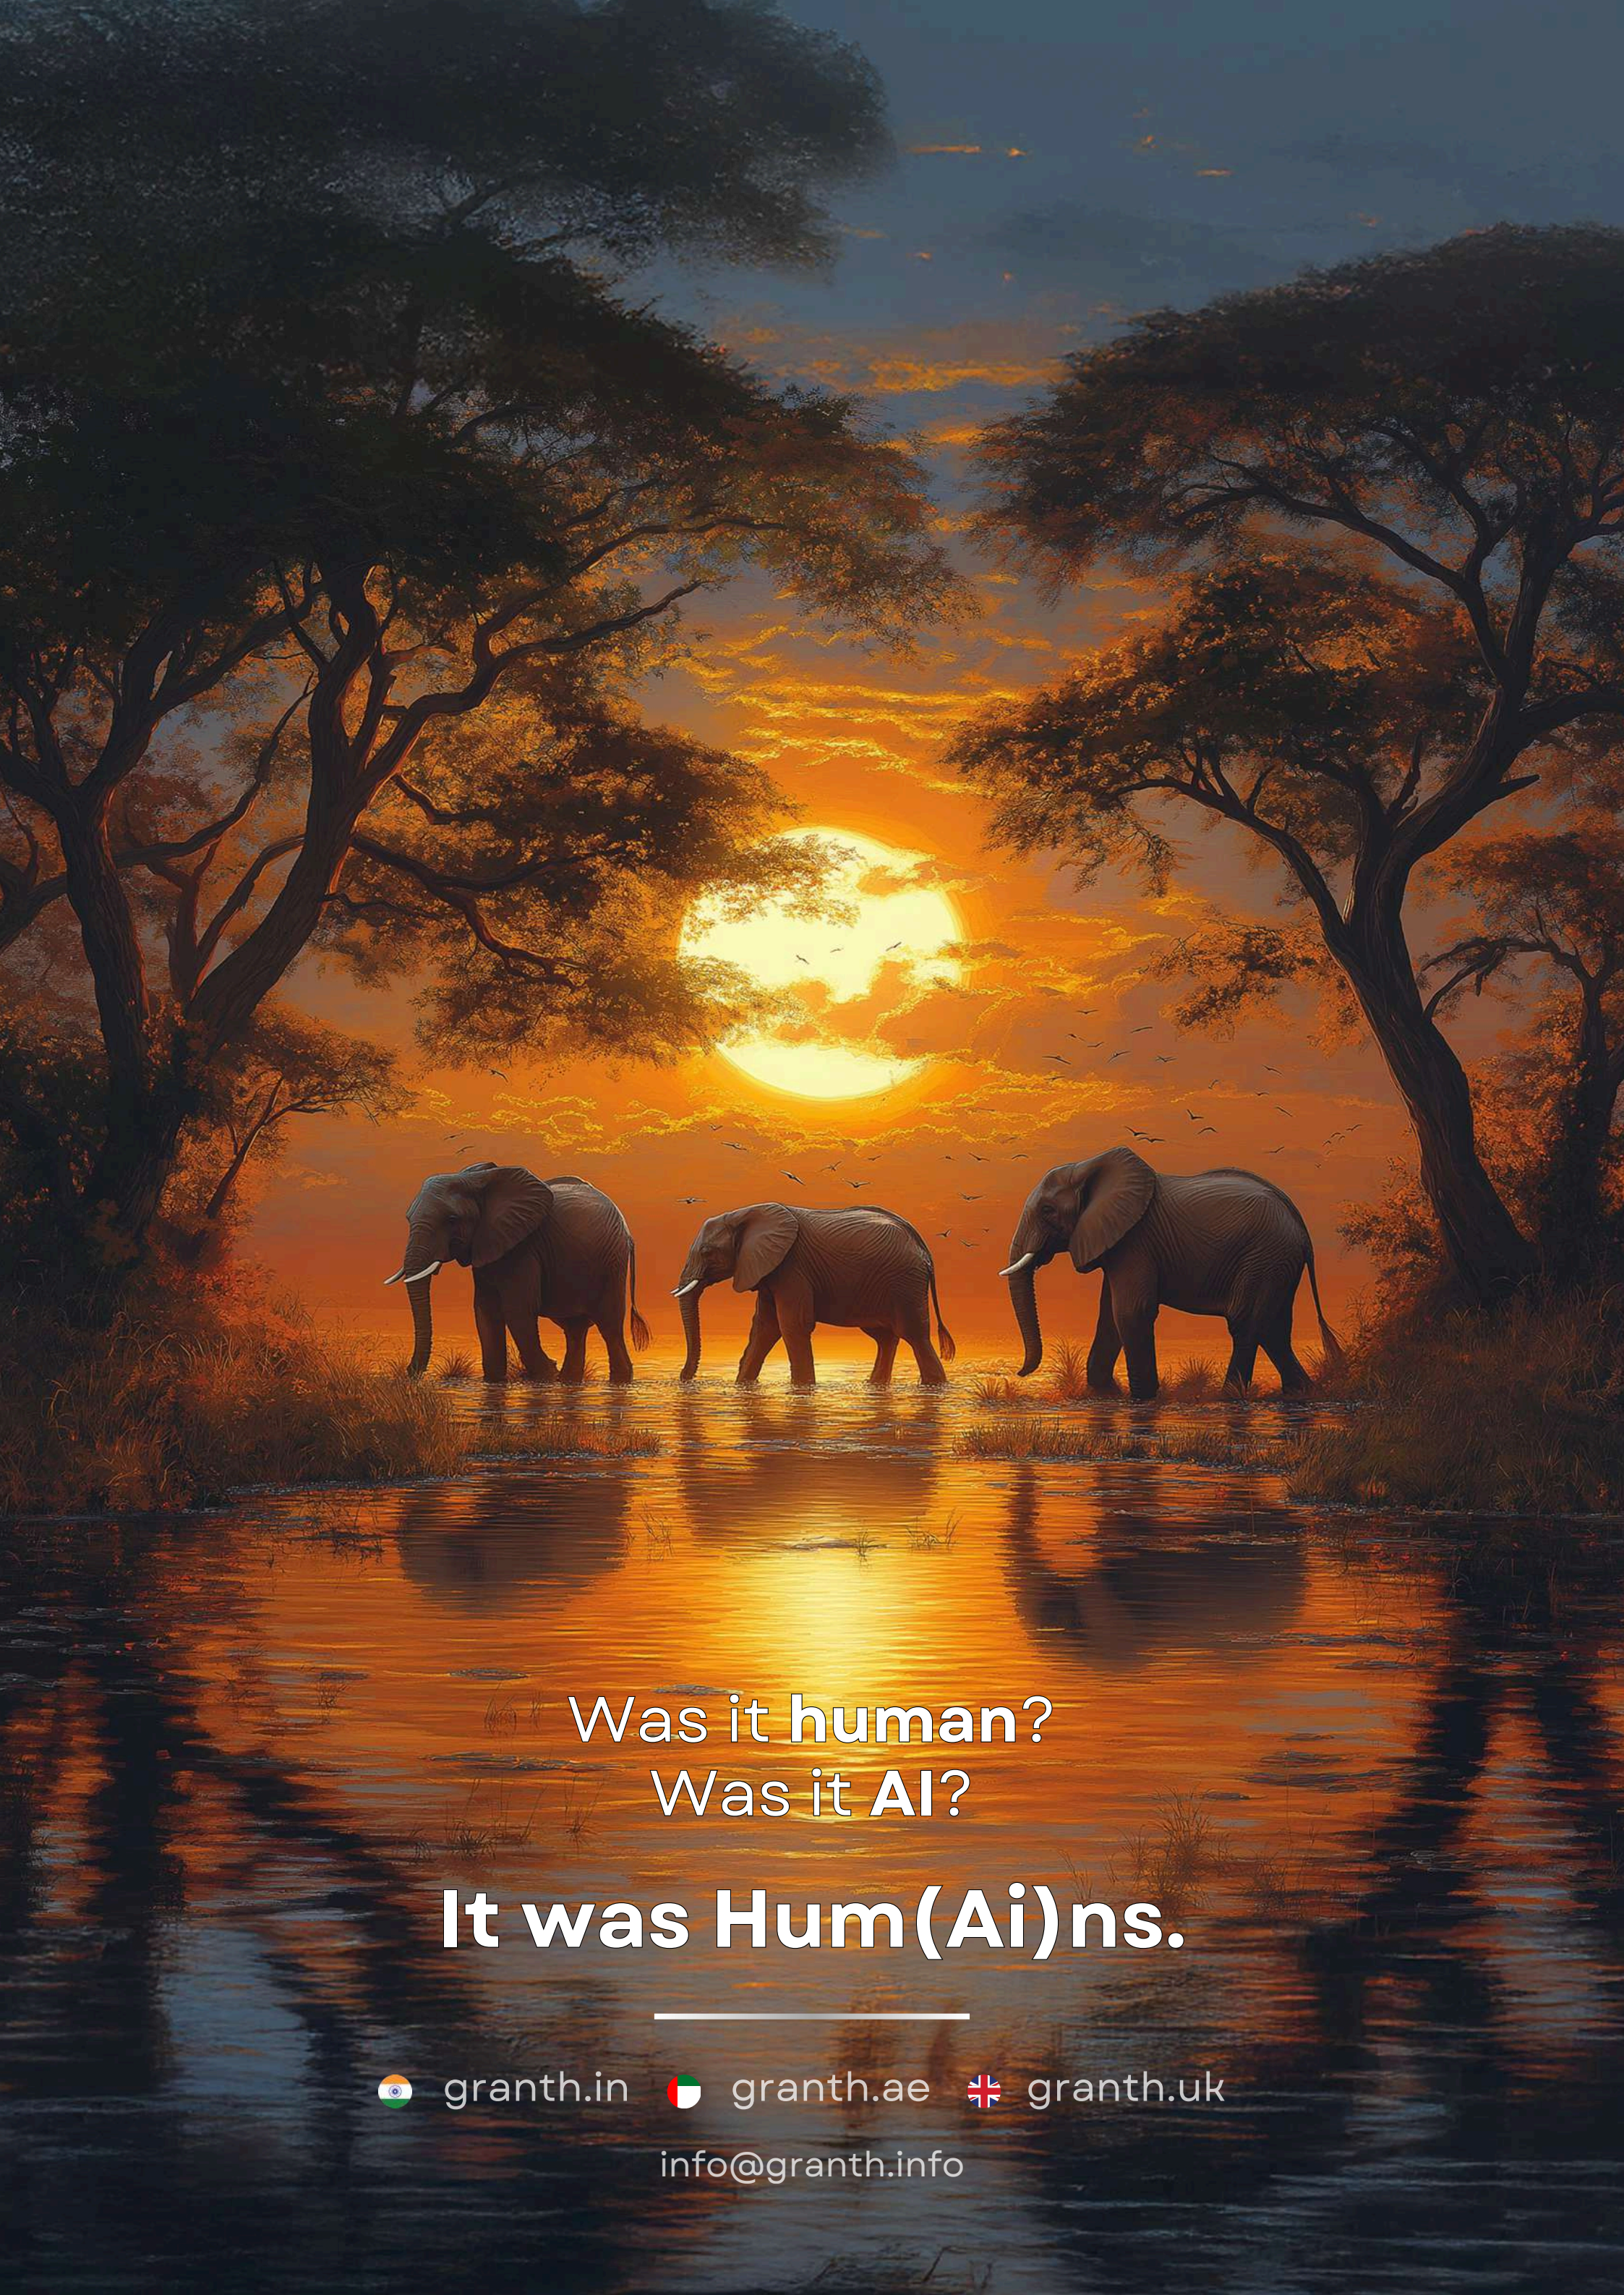

We don't just work for our clients, we work with them. Our dedication to excellence has won us the trust and admiration of many brands we have collaborated with. With each project, we strive to forge deeper connections and become a part of your extended family.

COMMUNITY

Our community of combined freelancers across the country are a team of storytellers who take on the challenge of giving a voice to your thoughts, weaving them into a tapestry of magic.

Was it human?
Was it AI?

It was Hum(Ai)ns.
